

Pet Memorials

Our mission is to create, together with you, a comforting, serene, uplifting, memorial service for your pet whether your pet be two legged, four legged, winged or aquatic.

The bond between people and pets is much stronger than we are often willing to admit. Those of us who are fortunate enough to have that special bond with a companion animal know the loss of such unconditional love can be devastating.

Our fundamental aim is to ease the sadness of parting by providing a dignified and personalized memorial service which will help you to move on with your life while cherishing all the wonderful memories of your beloved friend.

We believe that pets are an important and engaging member of the family whose loss results in the same grieving process as would losing anyone close to us.

We understand that the feelings generated when a pet dies are real and they deserve the same respect as if it were any other family member.

There has been a tradition for thousands of years that when a human being leaves this earthly realm, the relatives and loved ones that are still here take part in some form of ceremony; they need to formally say goodbye.

When the loved one is a companion but is not a human being, there is still a deep need for closure. There is an unspoken desire to proclaim, "You are loved, and you will be missed."

These questions often arise: "What happens to an animal after it dies? Does it have a soul? Where does it go?"

Many people believe that there is a Rainbow Bridge that exists between this world and the next which animals cross over when they die and that they are waiting there to lovingly greet you when you cross over. Love is never lost and it never ends. To live in the hearts of those we love is not to die.

Although there is no time limit on performing a memorial service, we recommend honoring your pet within 30 days of its passing.
